

©CLL 17162C

NOV -7 1921

OH DADDY

Photoplay in two reels

Produced by Eddie Lyons

Author of photoplay (under Sec. 62)

Arrow Film Corporation of the United States

S Y N O P S I S

©CIL 17162

NOV -7 1921

"OH DADDY!"

EDDIE LYONS COMEDY #1

Eddie receives information that he has been appointed guardian to Billie a protege of an old friend. The notification, however, does not state whether the child is a boy or a girl, and Eddie, taking it for granted that the child is a boy writes and tells it to come to him.

Billie, the child in question was a girl, and, a regular girl at that. Full of pep and ginger and always seeking ways of excitement and sport. The tone of Eddie's letter left no doubt in her mind that he thought her to be a boy, and this not only pleased and amused her, but put a wild thought into her head, so she made up her mind to go to her new guardian dressed as a boy.

She arrived at Eddie's home with full boy equipment, but when she met Eddie, a nice handsome young man, she proceeded to fall in love with him, but realized that there was no turning back.

She soon finds herself in a whirl of society and learns that her disguise is a severe handicap to her in the winning of so nice a young man, and at a dance she becomes jealous of a girl whom she thinks is too friendly with him.

Becoming acquainted with a little stray dog who is abundantly supplied with ferocious Man-eating fleas, she proceeds to distribute them in large quantities upon the dancing guests from an obscure point on a balcony with the result that the party breaks up quickly.

Eddie learns of this through the medium of Billie's supposed rival who calls while Eddie is rather decollete. Billie insists upon exposing Eddie's bare legs, and upon the departure of the girl, Eddie orders Billie to pack up and go from whence she come.

With aching heart Billie starts from Eddie, but dressed as a girl and when he sees the vision of delight, that Billie is, he begs her to stay, and in the final fade out we see that Eddie's exalted position of President of the Bachelors Club will soon be conferred upon some other worthy member.

This document is from the Library of Congress
“Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection,
1912-1977”

Collections Summary:

The Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, Class L and Class M, consists of forms, abstracts, plot summaries, dialogue and continuity scripts, press kits, publicity and other material, submitted for the purpose of enabling descriptive cataloging for motion picture photoplays registered with the United States Copyright Office under Class L and Class M from 1912-1977.

Class L Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi020004>

Class M Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi021002>

National Audio-Visual Conservation Center
The Library of Congress